ABOUT THE SUPPLIER

The allocation holder is a very large textile company on the East Coast of the US that has been in business for over 30 years and has customers like Home Depot, Hilton, Marriott, etc. An attorney from a large and respected global law firm has vetted multiple BOL's, allocation confirmations, invoices and factory contract. He spoke with a large customer of theirs that purchased gloves from them and, in turn, supplies Delta Airlines with those gloves. The attorney has issued an LOA attesting to these matters which we will share after the NCNDA is executed. With this supplier, the LC that is opened never has its funds leaving the US.
